

50 Things To Do In Mumbai - Discover India's Diversity

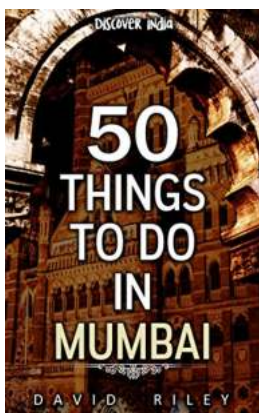

India is a country known for its vibrant culture, rich history, and diverse landscapes. One of the major cities that perfectly encapsulates the essence of India is Mumbai. Formerly known as Bombay, Mumbai is the financial, commercial, and entertainment capital of the country. It is a city that never sleeps, offering a plethora of activities and experiences for locals and tourists alike.

The Gateway of India

Starting our journey of discovering Mumbai, we cannot miss The Gateway of India. This iconic monument stands tall at the Apollo Bunder waterfront and serves as a symbol of the city's grandeur. Built during the British Raj, it welcomes numerous visitors, providing a stunning view of the Arabian Sea.

Marine Drive

Take a leisurely walk along the famous Marine Drive, also known as the Queen's Necklace. This curved promenade offers a breathtaking view of the city skyline during sunrise and sunset.

Elephanta Caves

Located on Elephanta Island, a boat ride away from Mumbai, the Elephanta Caves are a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Explore the intricate rock-cut temples and sculptures dedicated to Lord Shiva, dating back to the 5th century.

Haji Ali Dargah

Visit the Haji Ali Dargah, a religious shrine situated on a small islet off the coast of Worli. This Islamic architectural marvel is a popular pilgrimage site and offers a serene atmosphere to seek spiritual solace.

Bollywood Studio Tour

Immerse yourself in the glitz and glamour of Bollywood with a studio tour. Get a behind-the-scenes look at how some of India's biggest blockbusters are made and even catch a glimpse of your favorite stars.

Chowpatty Beach

Indulge in the lively atmosphere of Chowpatty Beach, one of Mumbai's most popular public beaches. Enjoy local street food, take a horse carriage ride, or simply relax and soak in the vibrant energy of the city.

Juhu Beach

Another famous beach in Mumbai is Juhu Beach. Its picturesque setting, along with vendors selling lip-smacking street food, makes it a perfect spot for a leisurely evening.

Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus

Marvel at the architectural beauty of Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of Mumbai's busiest railway stations. Its Victorian-Gothic style is a sight to behold.

Mahalaxmi Dhobi Ghat

Witness the hustle and bustle of Mumbai's largest open-air laundry, Mahalaxmi Dhobi Ghat. Watch as hundreds of washermen wash and dry clothes manually, creating a visually striking scene.

Hanging Gardens

Escape the chaotic city life and find solace in the beautiful Hanging Gardens, also known as Pherozeshah Mehta Gardens. Located on Malabar Hill, this well-manicured park offers stunning views of the Arabian Sea.

Colaba Causeway

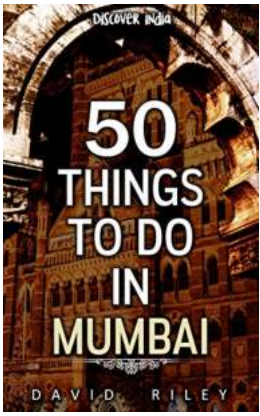

Shop till you drop at Colaba Causeway, a bustling street market selling a wide variety of items ranging from fashion accessories to handicrafts. Bargaining is key to getting the best deals here!

Dadar Flower Market

Get a glimpse of the vibrant flower market at Dadar, where local vendors sell an array of colorful and fragrant blooms. The market is a treat for the senses and provides an opportunity to capture stunning photographs.

Crawford Market

If you're in Mumbai, a visit to Crawford Market is a must. This historic market is a shopper's paradise, with stalls selling everything from fresh produce to souvenirs.

For all the fellow travellers out there who're in Mumbai or those planning to visit in the near future, I'd like to share a list of 50 things to do in Mumbai. It includes my favourite places to visit, and things to do in the city. This is the first book in the series of things to do in various Indian cities. And being a mumbaikar, what better city to start this journey with than Aamchi Mumbai.

The list has some of the regular places as well, but on some accounts, it takes you through some unseen experiences in Mumbai, which more often than not, even the people living in the city (for 20 – 30 years) have not been through. Although some of the experiences do have a budget constraint, most of them can be enjoyed even without spending too luxuriously. So I ask you a simple question, (whether you're a fellow Mumbaikar or a tourist), how many of the things listed here have you done? (Or places visited?)

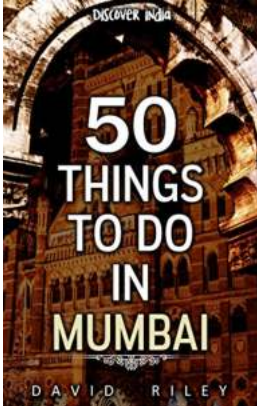

Do check other books on,

Navi Mumbai, Agra, Lucknow, Delhi, Jaipur and many other cities in India.
