B is for Brazil

Brazil is the largest country in South America, known for its vibrant culture and beautiful landscapes. Its flag is green, representing its lush forests, with a yellow diamond symbolizing wealth. Inside the diamond, there is a blue circle containing 27 stars representing the Brazilian states and the Federal District.

Z is for Zimbabwe

Zimbabwe is a landlocked country in southern Africa that is rich in cultural heritage. Its flag consists of seven horizontal stripes of green, yellow, red, and black. On the hoist side, there is a white triangle featuring the iconic Zimbabwe Bird, which is a national emblem and an important symbol of the country's history.

Learning about different countries' flags not only helps children recognize national symbols but also sparks their curiosity about the world. It enables them to learn about various nations, their cultures, and build a global perspective from an early age. So, let's embark on this exciting journey and introduce the young minds to the ABCs of the world!
