The Sanctuary exists--if they can live long enough to find it.

After escaping the Headhunters, Amelia and the survivors are more determined than ever to reach a safe haven. The Sanctuary represents hope--and life itself.

To get there, they must embark on a perilous journey through a desolate, burning Atlanta. The city is rife with danger, from the bitter cold of winter to the ever-present risk of infection to the threat of desperate, violent gangs.

But Amelia has a secret. She may hold the key to end the Hydra virus once and for all. To protect the cure--and each other--the survivors will face their deadliest test yet.

The third book in The Last Sanctuary series, Burning Skies is an electrifying apocalyptic/dystopian thriller perfect for fans of Hunger Games.
