Sarah thinks she knows everything about Evander. He hardly speaks to her, but she doesn't need him to explain his snotty upbringing. She still likes him.

Things change when she is given a book he authored, and is unexpectedly drawn into the story. Suddenly, she's wearing ball gowns and playing hostess to princes. The pretend world of his book seems like the adventure of a lifetime, until the world Evander created becomes dangerous in ways that spill over into real life. There are bloodthirsty capricorns to contend with, ironclad knights who keep threatening to light her on fire, and a doomed mansion with howling ghosts. Perhaps even a demon.

She'll have to read the whole book to find out who Evander really is.
