Nessa Moore has sought stability since her father's death. She's over it. Tired of always being mature, reliable, and disciplined, she's eager to spread her wings for one carefree summer adventure.

Jacie Hayes is struggling to overcome a breakup. This summer, she wants nothing more than to forget about Dylan and be a live-in-the-moment kind of girl who gossips about boys and sips mojitos.

Best friends since childhood, Nessa and Jacie are thrilled to accept an invitation for a summer beach getaway. Determined to make this their craziest and most memorable summer, both girls push their boundaries, accept new challenges, and find themselves keeping secrets from each other.

But some secrets can't be forgiven. Or forgotten.
