to Xiamen

Xiamen, also known as the "Garden on the Sea," is a coastal city situated on the southeastern coast of China. With its stunning beaches, charming old streets, and rich history, Xiamen has become a popular destination for both domestic and international tourists.

As the largest city in Fujian Province, Xiamen boasts a unique blend of traditional Chinese culture and modern development. The city's strategic location has made it an important port for trade and a melting pot of different cultures. This fusion is evident in Xiamen's architecture, food, and way of life.
