Katy is frightened that she will be caught and arrested for murder, why can't she remember what happened?

Along with her fellow orphans Katy fled to San Francisco after a double murder. Now the one man she longed to see and the one man she must never see is looking for her.

US Marshal Simon Huckerby, is tracking her down.

When he finds her, Katy confesses to murder, but Simon can't quite piece it all together. Where is Richard Ford, who was supposed to be there the night of the murders? What role does Emma have to play in all this? Could the woman he loves really be a killer?

Simon knows how bad things were at the orphanage, he would understand if things got out of hand but he needs the truth. Will he find it or will his heart get in the way?
