One of the highlights of Rick Steves Portugal Richardson is the exploration of Lisbon, the country's capital. Steeped in history, this charming city is a true melting pot of cultures. From its narrow cobbled streets to its iconic tram rides, Lisbon will enchant you with its old-world charm. Discover the fascinating stories behind places like Belém Tower and Jerónimos Monastery, and immerse yourself in the lively atmosphere of the city's iconic neighborhoods, such as Alfama and Bairro Alto.

Another gem waiting to be discovered is Porto, renowned for its stunning architecture and world-famous port wine. Rick Steves Portugal Richardson takes you on a journey through the city's historic Ribeira district, where you can stroll along the Douro River and marvel at the colorful houses perched on the hillsides. Explore the renowned port wine cellars and learn about the rich winemaking tradition that has put Porto on the map.

Hidden Gems of Portugal:

While Lisbon and Porto are undeniably spectacular, Rick Steves Portugal Richardson goes beyond the well-trodden path to unveil Portugal's hidden treasures. From the picturesque town of Sintra, with its fairytale-like castles and lush gardens, to the charming coastal town of Cascais, where you can relax on pristine beaches, Portugal has so much more to offer.

Head south to the Algarve region, and you'll find stunning cliffs, golden beaches, and secluded coves that will take your breath away. Rick Steves Portugal Richardson showcases the lesser-known towns and villages of the Algarve, where you can experience the authentic charm of traditional Portuguese life. From the historic town of Faro to the fishing village of Salema, each destination has its own unique character and stories waiting to be discovered.

For nature enthusiasts, Rick Steves Portugal Richardson showcases the untouched beauty of the Azores. This group of volcanic islands in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean is a paradise for outdoor lovers. Explore the tranquil lakes and breathtaking crater landscapes of São Miguel Island, or embark on a whale-watching adventure to encounter these majestic creatures up close.
