The Man Cave Divers 13 team is a group of dedicated and passionate individuals who have made it their life's mission to uncover the hidden wonders beneath America's surface. With a deep understanding of archaeology, geology, and a hunger for adventure, they have embarked on a remarkable journey to reveal the secrets of our past.

The Mysterious Caverns of America

America is home to some of the most remarkable cave systems in the world. From the underground rivers of Florida's famous Blue Grotto to the unexplored depths of Kentucky's Mammoth Cave, these natural wonders hold the key to unlocking our ancient history.

But it was in a lesser-known location, tucked away deep within the heartland, that the Man Cave Divers 13 made their most astonishing discovery. The name of this hidden gem? Cave of the Ancients.

Unearthing the Ancient Secrets

The Cave of the Ancients is a diver's paradise. Its labyrinthine tunnels and chambers extend for miles, offering a glimpse into the unknown. The team had been studying ancient Native American cave paintings, trying to decipher their meaning and purpose. Little did they know that their journey would take them to the very depths of this subterranean marvel.

With each dive, the team uncovered artifacts of a lost civilization. Pottery, tools, and even human remains revealed a tapestry of a forgotten era. Carbon dating of the findings astoundingly revealed that these artifacts were around 10,000 years old.

The Man Cave Divers 13 - Heroes of the Deep

The dedication and perseverance of the Man Cave Divers 13 team had now put them in the spotlight. Their amazing discoveries have captivated the world and shed new light on America's ancient history. Their expeditions have also opened pathways for further research and have inspired a new generation of explorers.

The Impact of the 10,000-Year-Old Man Cave Divers

The revelations stemming from the Man Cave Divers 13's findings have been groundbreaking, shaking the foundations of conventional knowledge. What was once thought to be a sparsely inhabited continent now has evidence of an advanced and thriving civilization. The ancient secrets unearthed in the Cave of the Ancients have rewritten the history books.

These discoveries also highlight the importance of cave conservation. The Cave of the Ancients is now a protected site, allowing future generations to explore and learn from the remnants of this forgotten era. It serves as a reminder that there is still much to discover and protect in the world beneath our feet.

Joining the Man Cave Divers 13 - A Journey of a Lifetime

This is one of the Cave Diving Series of 21 E-book Chapters that Explores the Lure of Underwater Labyrinths.

BOOK 13 FINDING AMERICA'S 10,000 YEAR OLD MAN – Near Little Salt Spring was a famous spa called Warm Mineral Springs. One man discovers indications that this 230 foot deep spring was once a dry cavern and he shows the world evidence with a human skull containing brain tissue that carbon dates to 10,000 years BP!

The author who built his own diving gear out of a World War II gas mask and 50 feet of air hose to explore a shipwreck near Lake Michigan in 1944, and who years later received the prestigious SSI Platinum Pro 5000 certification for making over 5,000 verified dives, now shows you never seen before sunken caverns once inhabited by Ice Age Man.

“... Those who think that exploring underwater caves is too exotic a pastime to be of much interest will change their minds after reading this work by Burgess... Of special poignancy is the author's recounting of the accidental death of a favorite diving companion. This is an interesting mix of adventure and archaeology that probes one of the earth's last frontiers.”--Publishers Weekly

“...it is easy to see why this book earned a 'Book of the Year' award from Forward Magazine... As a photographer, Burgess is able to add another dimension to this book... Burgess' photos cover many decades and many caves... Overall, the book is a delight, entertaining and an easy read. It's a great vacation book, full of adventure, divided into chapters that can easily stand alone or mesh together... [Burgess] masterfully glides the reader through tales of history that cavers and non-cavers will enjoy.” Susan Brillhart Book Review for IMMERSED, the International Technical Diving Magazine.

Thrilling stuff. Best of all you will live through all of these adventures...and not even get wet! Though you may end up a little breathless.
