1. Become a Digital Nomad

With the rise of remote work, becoming a digital nomad has become increasingly popular. By working remotely, you have the freedom to work from anywhere in the world, including the deck of a cruise ship. Whether you have a skill in web development, content writing, graphic design, or any other digital field, there is a high demand for remote workers.

Not only will working remotely allow you to fund your cruising kitty, but it will also provide you with the flexibility to enjoy the adventure and explore new destinations during your downtime.

2. Start an Online Business

Starting an online business can be a great way to generate income while cruising. Whether you sell handmade crafts, provide consulting services, or run an e-commerce store, the possibilities are endless.

When starting an online business, consider focusing on a niche market that aligns with your passions and interests. This will not only make it more enjoyable, but it will also increase your chances of success. With the right marketing strategies, your online business can become a steady source of income to fund your cruising adventures.

3. Rent Out Your Property

If you own property that you're not using while you're away on your cruising adventure, consider renting it out. Platforms like Airbnb make it easy to connect with potential renters and generate income while you're off exploring the world.

Before renting out your property, make sure you're familiar with local regulations and requirements. Additionally, hiring a property management company can help ease the process, ensuring your property is well taken care of while you're away.

4. Freelance or Take on Short-Term Contracts

If you prefer not to commit to a remote job or start a business, freelancing or taking on short-term contracts can be an excellent way to earn money while cruising. Websites like Upwork, Freelancer, and Fiverr connect freelancers with clients from all around the world, offering a wide range of projects across various industries.

Additionally, cruise ships often require short-term contracts for various positions, such as photographers, entertainers, or fitness instructors. These opportunities not only provide an income source but also allow you to experience the cruise ship lifestyle firsthand.

5. Create a Travel Blog

If you have a passion for writing or photography, starting a travel blog can be a fantastic way to fund your cruising kitty. With engaging content and stunning visuals, you can attract a loyal audience and monetize your blog through various means, such as sponsored posts, affiliate marketing, or selling digital products.

Sharing your cruising adventures and experiences through a travel blog not only allows you to document your journey but also provides a platform to connect with fellow cruisers and inspire others to pursue their own cruising dreams.

6. Seek Sponsorship Opportunities

Consider reaching out to companies and brands related to the cruising industry to inquire about sponsorship opportunities. Whether it's a cruise line, travel gear company, or a tourism board, there may be potential for financial support or partnerships in exchange for promoting their products or services.

Having a well-established online presence, whether through a blog, social media, or YouTube channel, can greatly increase your chances of securing sponsorships. By leveraging your audience and showcasing your dedication to the cruising lifestyle, you may find companies eager to collaborate.

7. Budget and Save Ahead of Time

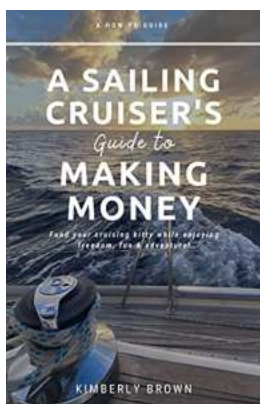

While the strategies mentioned above can certainly help fund your cruising kitty, it's important to have a solid budget and savings plan in place. Cut down on unnecessary expenses, create a dedicated savings account, and set realistic financial goals.

By prioritizing your cruising dreams and making financial adjustments, you can start building your cruising kitty in no time.

Embarking on a cruising adventure doesn't have to be a far-fetched dream. With the right strategies and determination, you can fund your cruising kitty while enjoying the freedom, fun, and adventure that cruising offers.

Whether you choose to become a digital nomad, start an online business, rent out your property, freelance, create a travel blog, seek sponsorships, or combine multiple strategies, the key is to take action and turn your dreams into reality.

So, start planning, saving, and exploring the opportunities that await. Fund your cruising kitty and set sail on the adventure of a lifetime!

Did you know that many sailing couples and sailing families are enjoying the benefits of the sailing lifestyle while making a fantastic income? Most people assume that the boating life is only for the rich or retired. So not true!

I've met loads of people that tell me they'll have fun when they retire or live the sailing dream once the kids are gone. And many unfortunately believe that you have to go to school, get a good job, have kids, be a pillar of the community, grow old, retire, and then you can relax and reap the rewards of all your hard work.

Of course it's important to be responsible, take care of yourself and your family but why not do that AND enjoy one of the most amazing lifestyles out there?!

Would it surprise you to discover that there are thousands of people and families out living the dream and you could live it too?

My name is Kimberly and I am working sailing cruiser who has been successfully making a six-figure income while sailing around the world on my beautiful 56 yacht with my lovely husband and beautiful daughter.

I'm no one special. I wasn't born wealthy, nor did I win the lottery. My husband was a prison officer and later a stay-at-home dad. I ran a foreign currency business in London. Both of us decided that life wasn't working for us, so we sold everything we had, purchased a sailboat, and sailed off into the sunset.

We had a bit of money to live off of for a while, but the plan was to make an income.

Over the years, I didn't feel as if I was making much progress, nor did I know exactly where we were heading. I just kept working away at a variety of things. Today we have multiple streams of income—some passive, requiring very little effort, and some active, requiring our full attention.

We make money while we sleep, and we make money when we have guests join us on our boat. The glorious thing is that we also make money while we have guests and sleep! Only now can I look back and provide you with what worked so that you can get a jumpstart to living your sailing life while making money to truly enjoy it.

I've created this book to help you realize that it's possible to live your dream, and I'd like to share with you how we've made it work for us and how others have done the same. You most likely won't want to follow in our exact steps, although we'd be happy to help you do so. What's important is to understand the strategies available, the overarching principles and action steps that we applied. My hope is that you can make things work quicker and easier than it has been for us.

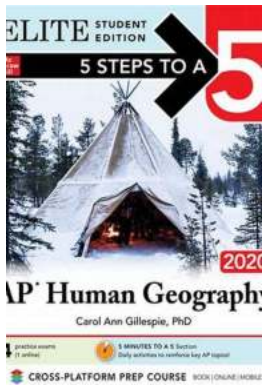

The approach that we've taken has allowed us to create a variety of income streams so that when one goes down, like when a world-wide pandemic destroys one income stream, other sources of income will support us through the tough times.

This book will provide you with an arsenal of many options. I hope you'll get excited by the sheer number of opportunities there are to go out and live the life of your dreams! Start reading the book now!
