It's been six months since Grey left. Six months since I hurt him, ruining what possibly could have been the best thing to ever happen to me.

Now I'm spending my summer trying to forget him—trying to fill the hole in my heart by entertaining the connection I have with a childhood friend. Noah is sweet, kind, and he's everything I thought I wanted.

The problem is...he's not Grey—a fact I'm very much reminded of when Grey decides to return to Miami. However, he's no longer the man I fell in love with.

He's darker, rougher, brasher than ever, and it's painfully clear the only reason he's back is to torture me, to make me suffer by acting like he hates me.

But no matter how hard I try to move on, how much Grey tries to hurt me, my heart still only wants one thing...

Him.
