Why do people get caught in the Rat Race?

Many factors contribute to people getting caught in the rat race. Society encourages us to follow a predetermined path: go to school, get a degree, find a stable job, get married, buy a house, and so on. We often fall into this trap without questioning whether it aligns with our true desires and passions.

Financial obligations, such as paying bills and supporting a family, can also make it difficult to break free from the rat race. Fear of failure and uncertainty about the future play a significant role in keeping individuals trapped in a life they may not truly enjoy.

The Road to Freedom at Skipper Library

Skipper Library is not just your average library. It's a sanctuary for dreamers and visionaries who seek to break free from the rat race and live life on their terms.

You long to escape the daily grind, buy a boat and sail away. This book will inspire your dreams and show you how to turn them into a reality – be it an extended cruise or years away. Written by a yachting journalist who has sailed away for 8 years, together with the contributions of 100 other blue-water cruisers, there are tales a plenty of what it is like to do it from around the world – west, east, north and south. There is also practical advice on everything from choosing a boat to crossing oceans. You'll be guided through each step of the preparation before casting off on your adventure of a lifetime. There's information on everything the would-be blue-water sailor needs to consider, including safety, communications, children, ocean passages and budgeting. Learn about routes and destinations around Europe, the Caribbean, the Pacific and beyond to help you cruise the Mediterranean or Baltic, cross the Atlantic or circumnavigate the world. Colour photographs and charts will inspire and inform in this essential guide for the 21st century blue-water sailor. Fully updated for 2019 with new sections on visiting the Baltic and high and low latitudes. Contributors include John Ridgway, Jeanne Socrates, Tom Cunliffe, Ellen Massey Leonard, Behan Gifford, Nigel Wollen, Andrew Wilkes, Jane Russell and Jeremy Wyatt.
