Christopher Davis tries to be invisible in middle school, but being small and smart, he's still a target for bullies. Chris just goes through life until Mandy, his one friend, points out that his life would be better as a girl. In fact, Mandy believes that Chris's true self is female. Chris has never thought he was transgender but medical tests prove that Chris is actually intersex, a genetic variation.

With the support of his mother and Mandy, Chris begins the transition to living as Lauren. This includes going to school as a girl, dealing with classmates and teachers, making new friends, and discovering her truest self.
