The Four Rose Knights, each representing a different suit of playing cards, have sworn to protect and serve the Rose Princess. However, they are not what they seem. Their charming and attractive appearances hide a dark secret.

As Anis embarks on her quest to fulfill her role as the Rose Princess, she encounters challenges, temptations, and forbidden love. She must navigate through the dangerous world of politics and make tough decisions that could alter the fate of the entire kingdom.

The Characters

One of the greatest strengths of Kiss Of The Rose Princess Vol lies in its well-developed and relatable characters. Anis Yamamoto, the Rose Princess, is a strong and determined protagonist. Despite her seemingly delicate appearance, she possesses a fiery spirit and refuses to be confined by the limitations imposed on her.

The Four Rose Knights bring additional depth to the story. Kaede Higa, the Diamond Knight, is a loyal and serious young man who gradually opens up to Anis. Mitsuru Tenjoh, the Spade Knight, is a mischievous and cunning individual with a complicated past. Seiran Asagi, the Heart Knight, is a shy and gentle soul with a tragic backstory. Lastly, Mutsuki Kurama, the Club Knight, is the epitome of charisma and charm, but hides his true intentions.

Together, these characters form complex relationships filled with tension, loyalty, and unexpected twists. Their interactions add layers of intrigue and romance, keeping readers hooked from one chapter to the next.

The Artwork

Aya Shouoto's artwork in Kiss Of The Rose Princess Vol is nothing short of stunning. The characters are exquisitely designed, with detailed expressions that bring their emotions to life. The world-building is rich and immersive, filled with elaborate costumes and beautiful scenery that transport readers into Gedonelune.

The use of shading and line work adds depth and dimension to each panel, enhancing the overall visual experience. Shouoto's attention to detail is evident in every page, making the manga a visual feast for the eyes.
