Please note, however, that the LSAT is no longer a paper/pencil exam in North America. In early 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic swept across the United States, and most in-person exams, including the March and April LSATs, were canceled. In May, LSAC rolled out the LSAT-Flex, which is a shorter exam that is taken remotely, usually from the exam taker's home.

As of this writing, LSAC continues to offer only LSAT-Flex exams. It seems likely that in-person exams will resume when it becomes safe to have them. What is not clear, however, is whether LSAC will continue to offer the LSAT-Flex as an alternative to in-person testing when that happens.

Before the COVID-19 pandemic, every LSAT in North America (United States & Canada) is administered digitally on a Microsoft Surface Go Tablet.

Tablets will be provided to test takers at the test center. On the digital LSAT, both the content and the structure of the test sections and the questions will be the same as the paper-and-pencil LSAT. But in addition, the digital LSAT will include new features such as a timer with a five-minute warning, highlighting, and flagging to keep track of questions that you may want to revisit in a section.
