Hell's "Most Wanted" list just grew by one.

They say a good book can change your life. For Halle Michaels, it might just end it.

When an old, tattered book shows up on Halle's doorstep containing undeciphered messages, it brings with it a surge of mysterious incidents, sinister voices, and a code only she understands. A code that could lead to enemies she never knew existed and answers to the secrets her father left behind.

Learning your father was a prophet, your Guardian's a double-agent, and your best friend has lied to you for five years can really lead to trust issues. Forced to confront a past filled with deceptions, Halle realizes the book not only holds the key to uncovering answers but has the power to destroy everything she's ever known. Including her.

Who's a reluctant prophet to trust? Can she set aside the lies and put her faith in the ones who have been less than upfront with her? Or will the promise of truth, no matter how dark, lure her to its power until she hands over the one thing that could save her?
