He's the one person I don't want around and yet, I can't ask him to leave.

Previously, Her Summer Mistake

Bella

The summer is coming to an end, and I'm barely surviving. Dad's gone. Mom spends more time passed out on the couch than doing anything else. Thankfully, I have school and soccer to keep me distracted. Until Logan Cartwright walks back into my life. He's acting like his family didn't ruin mine and confusing me more than ever. I'm supposed to hate him, but he's nice and everywhere I don't want him to be.

Logan

I'm back home in Sweet Mountain, ready to start my life sans my parents. They're desperately trying to save the business they took from the Davenports and have abandoned me at my grandmother's house while they come up with a plan. Which is fine with me. When I run into Bella, I'm trying to fight the desire to fix what our parents broke. She's distant and vulnerable. My protective instincts take control. If only I could get her to trust me, she'd see how much I want to help, not hurt.
