With an upbeat motto, "Bright Year, Bright You," and a cute fox as the official mascot, Minsk, the capital of Belarus, hosted the 2019 European Games. Some 4,000 athletes from 50 member countries of the European Olympic Committees participated in 15 sports, most of which were qualifiers for the Summer Olympics in Tokyo. Enthusiastic volunteers--8,700 selected from 24,000 applications--provided a contagious enthusiasm for their city and the Games.

Minsk is a picturesque city that straddles the meandering Svislach River. Its historic area is a maze of narrow streets filled with restaurants and cafes, historic monuments, and the city's Town Hall, which hosts jazz on summer weekends. The city has a renowned opera and ballet theater situated in its own park, one of Europe's oldest resident circuses, and a youthful population that exudes an energy and exuberance that pervades the city.

Join author and explorer Steve Kaffen and attend the best of the European Games including the spectacular closing ceremony, and experience the sights, spirit and local color of surprising Minsk.
