The Unique Game Mechanics

Planet Bound offers a refreshing take on the sci-fi RPG genre with its innovative game mechanics. At its core, it is a choice-driven game, where your decisions impact the outcome of your journey. As you explore new planets, you will face various dilemmas and challenges, forcing you to make weighty choices that shape not only your character's path but also the fate of the universe.

One of the game's notable features is the seamless integration of strategic gameplay and resource management. Each decision you make affects your resources, such as fuel, supplies, and crew morale. You must carefully balance your choices, making tough decisions that could lead to either success or failure.

Moreover, Planet Bound incorporates a compelling combat system, allowing you to engage in thrilling battles with the unique creatures you encounter. The combat mechanics are both strategic and action-packed, requiring you to utilize your wits and tactical skills to emerge victorious.

"The Book"

Four friends find a mysterious book that enhances their natural abilities and also has a mysterious prophecy about a small planet. It didn't make a whole lot of sense to the kids, so they didn't think too much about it until they lost the book. Now, more than ever, they need to rely on one another as the bad guys swoop in and take them hostage. Fairies and vampires are only part of the problem for these kids, though. Can they get everyone out and home safely before the total destruction happens?

"The Fight for Jupiter"

Skye just wanted to live a mostly normal life. She was insanely smart and was able to create a robotic dog that thinks for itself and talks. Other than that, she just wants to be normal. She doesn't get her wish, though, when aliens show up in her neighbor's kitchen and whisk her away to go and help them fight Martians-like real Martians! On the planet Jupiter! This was going to be an awesome story at school next year!

"Trapped"

Dakota is a 16-year-old girl who was transported to the magical land of Glandiera. There she learns all the about being a Knight to the kingdom. During her training, she meets Chris and Ryan, two friends who go to the same school as she does. They learn all about Glandiera and even get to raise dragons! Trouble with a prophecy starts soon after they are trained. Dakota is at the heart of the prophecy. Can she and her friends do what they do best and save the kingdom from utter destruction?
