The world is plagued by a new menace gradually eating deep into the fabrics of the society. A menace that is more dangerous than many social issues found in our world today. Do we let this menace keep prevailing amongst us or do we wage a war against it? Little by little , like a tree planted by the river side, this new drug and addiction has become a public issue many people refuse to address , worst of it all is it's relative growth by teenagers who are the leaders of our tomorrow.

To the youths of the world I say this reading this :

You're gorgeous and beautiful. Love and take care of yourself because no one will love you as much as you do. Distance yourself from people who disrespect you. We love you and know yourself worth and that is why this book was created. Do not let anyone despise your youth or your body, do not let anyone compare you to a pornstar. Do not let anybody judge you and your morals. Keep being yourself and never change for anything or anyone.

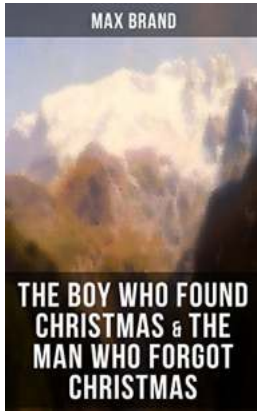

- To the parents, raise your kids for the future, for our generation, for the coming days .

This book will go a long way in helping you do that in the morally degrading world we live in now.
