There is a difference between loneliness and solitude.
Transform that loneliness into solitude, embrace it, and realise, it is a gift.
It gives birth to what is original in us, a beauty unseen before, of intelligence and wit.
It gives an opportunity to see ourselves from an unbiased lense,
to have a sense of our reality.
Turn the bane of loneliness into the boon of solitude and stop repenting.
Bolt the door, drink coffee, listen to your thoughts and contemplate. At the end something beautiful will be discovered.
May be a friend, may be a companion in your own being.
Whatever it will be, it will be something you will cherish for the rest of your life.
