“Fascinating and brilliantly put together.”

Danish newspaper Politiken.

“Damned good entertainment...If ‘The Informer’ was good, then ‘Codename Panzer’ is very good. It’s exciting, well written, nuanced, compelling and believable in the portrayal of Denmark 1945.”

Danish magazine Sentura.

“The very best is his depiction of the characters. Steen Langstrup notes—using his precise prose—how people change to the worse, degenerating to lesser human beings, harder and more primitive, the inhumanity of war.”

Swedish newspaper Expressen.

“He can still write the asses off most competitors and put some perspective to many happy amateurs of the genre.”

Danish newspaper Ekstra Bladet.
