Magic. Secrets. Danger. What's a princess to do?

Determined to lead her people during a crisis, sixteen-year-old Princess Charlotte Fairisles returns to her city in search of allies. It's a tough job with the increasing number of secrets she's keeping—like how she's the first mage in two thousand years.

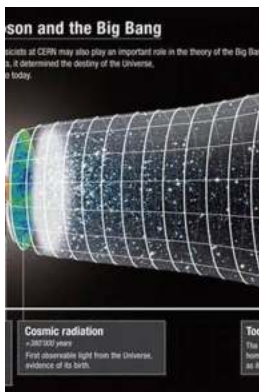

She knows a dangerous man suspects her abilities. Against her wishes, her new friends whisk her to safety. Enconced in a cozy forest cottage, Charlotte grudgingly discovers she enjoys a simple life—and the company of her handsome guard.

But when the depths of her parents' corruption is finally exposed, Charlotte and her allies must stop them. When the mission goes awry, she finds herself imprisoned and worse, her allies in mortal danger.

Can Charlotte save her friends and her country?
