When eighteen-year-old orphan Alexandra Radinski gets her marching orders from The Saint Christopher Home for Orphaned Girls, a place she has called home for almost all of her young life, she must decide on which road fate will take her.

With the guidance from her friend and matron, Mrs. Bristow, Alexandra makes the bold decision to travel to Grand Forks, North Dakota and marry rancher George Mirabaugh, a good and honorable man who, at twice her age and with a temperament that at best can only be described as taciturn, is certainly not the best match for one so full of life as Alexandra.

On arrival, Alexandra's world is sent into turmoil when she realizes there are two Mr. Mirabaugh's.

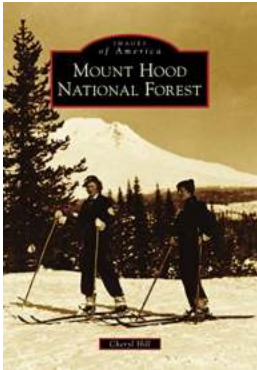

There's just one problem—she finds herself falling for the wrong one.

But, if anything, St Christopher's has taught Alexandra to be a principled young lady so she knows she must follow through on her promise and marry the man she is betrothed to.

How can Alexandra resolve the chaos that is raging in her mind and ensure she marries the correct Mr. Mirabaugh?

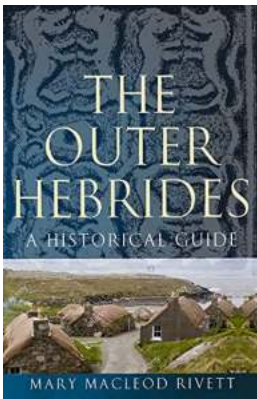

But who is the correct Mr. Mirabaugh!
