- Research your destination: Before you travel, do some thorough research on the food scene of your chosen destination. Look for renowned local dishes, popular food markets, and highly recommended restaurants.
- Create an itinerary: Make a detailed itinerary that includes all the must-visit food spots. Consider mapping out your days to ensure you cover all the culinary gems your destination has to offer.
- Try the local street food: Street food is often the heart and soul of a city's culinary culture. Don't be afraid to try the local delicacies served by street vendors and small food stalls.
- Book a food tour: To truly immerse yourself in the local food scene, consider booking a food tour. These guided experiences will take you to hidden gems and provide valuable insights into the city's culinary history.
- Experience the fine dining scene: If you're a fan of gourmet cuisine, be sure to reserve a table at some of the top-rated restaurants in your destination. Indulge in exquisite flavors and innovative dishes prepared by talented chefs.

- Don't forget the local drinks: Every food enthusiast knows that the perfect meal is often accompanied by an equally delicious drink. Don't miss out on trying the local beverages, whether it's craft beer, fine wines, or traditional cocktails.

Top Destinations for Food Enthusiasts

Now that you know how to plan your food-focused long weekend, let's dive into some of the top destinations around the world that will satisfy every food enthusiast's cravings:

1. Tokyo, Japan

Tokyo is a paradise for food lovers, offering a wide range of culinary experiences. From fresh sushi at the renowned Tsukiji Fish Market to savory ramen in small local shops, the city has it all. Don't forget to try the local sake and indulge in a traditional kaiseki meal!

2. Barcelona, Spain

Barcelona is a vibrant city known for its rich food scene. Explore the famous La Boqueria Market and savor authentic Catalan dishes such as paella, tapas, and churros. Pair your meals with a glass of Sangria for the perfect Spanish experience!

3. Bangkok, Thailand

Bangkok is a paradise of flavors, offering delicious street food, bustling night markets, and unique dining experiences. Indulge in spicy Thai curries, aromatic Pad Thai, and the famous mango sticky rice. Don't forget to try the local street barbecues and refreshing Thai iced tea!

4. New Orleans, United States

New Orleans is a melting pot of flavors and cultures. Explore the vibrant French Quarter and try traditional Creole and Cajun dishes like gumbo and jambalaya. Don't miss out on indulging in beignets, and enjoy the lively atmosphere of Bourbon Street!

5. Rome, Italy

Rome is a paradise for pasta and pizza lovers. Explore the city's charming streets and indulge in classic Italian dishes like carbonara and margherita pizza. Don't forget to try the refreshing gelato and pair your meals with a glass of fine Italian wine!

There are many people who are enthusiastic about food—the cooking of it, the preparation of it, the serving of it, and let's not forget the eating of it.

But Andrew Delaplaine is the ultimate Food Enthusiast.

“This concise guidebook was exactly what I needed to make the most of my limited time in town.”

= Tanner Davis, Milwaukee

This is another of his books with spot-on reviews of the most exciting restaurants in town. Some will merit only a line or two, just to bring them to your attention. Others deserve a half page or more.

“The fact that he doesn't accept free meals in exchange for a good review makes all the difference in his something brutally accurate reviews.”

= Jerry Adams, El Paso

“Exciting” does not necessarily mean expensive. The area’s top spots get the recognition they so richly deserve (and that they so loudly demand), but there are plenty of “sensible alternatives” for those looking for good food handsomely prepared by cooks and chefs who really care what they “plate up” in the kitchen.

For those with a touch of Guy Fieri, Delaplaine ferrets out the best food for those on a budget. That dingy looking dive bar around the corner may serve up one of the juiciest burgers in town, perfect to wash down with a locally brewed craft beer.

Whatever your predilection or taste, cuisine of choice or your budget, you may rely on Andrew Delaplaine not to disappoint.

“Unlike the ‘honest’ reviews on site like Yelp, this writer knows what he’s talking about. He’s a professional, with decades in the business, not an amateur.”

= Holly Titler, Los Angeles

Delaplaine dines anonymously at the Publisher’s expense. No restaurant listed in this series has paid a penny or given so much as a free meal to be included.
