Do you know what happened after the Salem witch trials? Uncover Salem's secrets in this complete trilogy!

Puritan teenager Sarah Kelly never expected to meet anyone with Salem ties. She only sought innocent dancing in the woods with her friends, not conjurings and a coven entranced by their mysterious priestess, Hecate.

A stranger from the northern colonies, Hecate claims to hold secret knowledge of the real evil behind the Salem witch trials and offers to share the truth with Sarah and her friends. But when the Puritan teens partake of a powder meant to conjure spirits - and the results go horribly awry - Sarah finds her wholesome upbringing at war with sinister forces.

As darkness aligns upon her community, Sarah is faced with an epic choice - to keep her woodland adventures a secret is to risk her friends' damnation . . . but to confess might invoke the accusing remnants of Salem to rise from the ashes.

Set nineteen years after the infamous trials, this completed trilogy will make you question everything you thought you knew about the Salem witches and their accusers.

If you like suspenseful thrillers, mysterious strangers, a touch of romance, and history with a side of bloodshed, then you'll love this action-packed series. Start reading to uncover Salem's secrets today!
