

Tipsy Travel Guide To Walt Disney World Bars Lounges: Discover the Magic of Glow Cubes

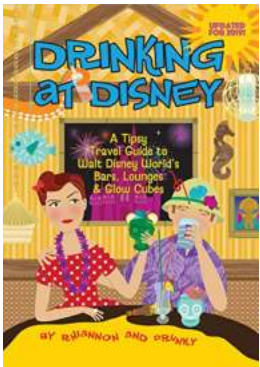

Walt Disney World is not just a theme park for kids, but also a paradise for adults seeking an enchanting and vibrant nightlife experience. With an array of unique and magical bars and lounges, Disney World offers a Tipsy Travel Guide that guarantees an unforgettable journey filled with delicious drinks and memorable experiences. In this comprehensive guide, we will take you through a curated selection of the best bars and lounges, while also delving into the world of the iconic glow cubes.

1. Trader Sam's Grog Grotto

Located in Disney's Polynesian Village Resort, Trader Sam's Grog Grotto immerses you in a tropical paradise. Step into this tiki-themed bar and lounge and embark on a journey to a different era. Sip on exotic cocktails like the Uh-Oa!, Krakatoa Punch, or the Nautilus, which come in collectible mugs that you can take home. Don't forget to snag one of their famous glow cubes, shaped like tiki masks, to add a touch of magic to your drink.

2. AbracadaBar

If you're a fan of magic and illusions, AbracadaBar is the place to be. Tucked away on Disney's BoardWalk, this hidden gem pays homage to the golden age of illusionists. Savor their signature cocktails while being surrounded by vintage props and artifacts, creating an atmosphere that will transport you back in time. With a variety of cocktails named after famous magicians, you can enjoy your drink with a glow cube that adds an extra sense of enchantment.

3. The Edison

Step into a unique blend of sophistication and entertainment at The Edison, located in Disney Springs. This industrial-style steampunk bar and lounge takes you back to the 1920s with its extravagant decor and live entertainment. Indulge in craft cocktails and delectable bites while enjoying live music, cabaret shows, and even aerialists. The Edison offers their own take on glow cubes in the form of illuminated ice spheres that magically light up your drink.

4. Jellyrolls

If you're looking for a lively and musical atmosphere, head over to Jellyrolls on Disney's BoardWalk. This dueling piano bar guarantees a night filled with laughter, sing-alongs, and incredible entertainment. Order your favorite drinks and witness the talented pianists serenade you with their dueling performances. While they may not offer glow cubes, the vibrant energy and captivating ambiance make up for it.

5. Oga's Cantina

Travel to a galaxy far, far away at Oga's Cantina in Star Wars: Galaxy's Edge at Disney's Hollywood Studios. This intergalactic watering hole provides an out-of-this-world experience with its otherworldly concoctions and lively atmosphere. Sip on unique drinks like the Fuzzy Tauntaun or the Jedi Mind Trick while mingling with interesting characters from the Star Wars universe. Though they don't have glow cubes, the immersive environment and Star Wars-inspired cocktails make Oga's Cantina an absolute must-visit.

Disney World is not just a place for family-friendly fun; it also offers a vibrant nightlife scene that caters to adult visitors. From tiki-themed bars to magical illusionist hideaways, and from steampunk-inspired lounges to intergalactic cantinas, there is something for everyone. While glow cubes add an extra touch of wonder and magic to your drinks, the overall atmosphere and unique experiences are what truly make these bars and lounges stand out. So, embark on a Tippy Travel Guide adventure and discover the enchantment that awaits you at Walt Disney World bars and lounges!
