Jane Meadows has only ever loved one man, David Clark, but why would he look at her? She rides the ranch daily, when he is surrounded with beautiful and elegant women.

FREE with Kindle Unlimited.

Jane has been working the family ranch since her daddy passed. During those years she has given up on her social life. It was necessary, it helped keep the family afloat.

Now her friend and her ma want her to slow down. To start to live, but the man she really cares for is surrounded by beautiful, rich, and well-dressed women. Jane cannot compete. Not with her work hardened hands and patched up dresses.

Persuaded to take a roll in the town play, she fears that she will be kept on the sidelines. After all the wealthiest girl in town is after David.

Can Jane find love or will she lose it to save her family?
