Start your journey by visiting the iconic Forks High School, where Bella initially crosses paths with her captivating love interest, Edward Cullen. Stroll through the hallways that witnessed their blossoming romance and recreate iconic scenes that enchanted audiences worldwide.

After the high school, make your way to Bella's charming house. Nestled in a picturesque neighborhood, this quaint residence will take you back to the moments of love, friendship, and supernatural adventures. Feel the connection with the characters as you take a stroll in the familiar surroundings.

No Twilight tour would be complete without visiting the legendary Cullen House. Set amidst stunning natural landscapes, this beautiful mansion will transport you directly into the world of vampires. Marvel at its grandeur and elegance, and imagine the intense drama that unfolded within its walls.

But the adventure doesn't end there! The breathtaking landscapes surrounding Vancouver were also key locations in the Twilight saga. Embark on an unforgettable journey to the atmospheric forests where Bella and Edward's legendary love story truly came to life. Stand in the exact spots where they shared passionate moments and let the enchanting beauty of nature captivate your senses.

Discover the Charming Towns

While exploring Vancouver, take some time to visit the charming small towns nearby that were also featured in the Twilight movies. Start with picturesque Port Coquitlam, where you can immerse yourself in the setting where Bella's mother, Renee, resides. Stroll through the cozy streets, visit the local cafes, and soak in the friendly atmosphere.

Continue your journey to the enchanting neighborhood of Steveston. Recognize the captivating streets and shops that stood as the backdrop for Bella's hometown, and feel the sense of familiarity wash over you. This quaint town is not to be missed for any Twilight enthusiast.

Experience Nature at its Finest

Vancouver and its surroundings are known for their unparalleled natural beauty. Take a break from the Twilight tour and delve into the awe-inspiring landscapes that this region has to offer. Explore the expansive Stanley Park, where verdant forests meet the sparkling waters of the Pacific Ocean. Marvel at the stunning vistas, go for a peaceful stroll, or simply bask in the serenity of nature.

If you're up for an adrenaline rush, head to Grouse Mountain and enjoy thrilling outdoor activities such as hiking, skiing, or even paragliding. Immerse yourself in the breathtaking panoramic views and embrace the adventurous side of the Pacific Northwest.

Below are just a few of the fourteen (14) Vancouver, BC film sites you can enjoy.

Jacob Black's House! The structures actually used for shooting all exterior scenes at Billy and Jacob's home still exist, and look just like they did during filming. This New Moon, Eclipse, and Breaking Dawn film site is found in the Minnekhada Park region of Coquitlam, just northwest of Vancouver, BC.

New Westminster--a suburb of Vancouver--is where several New Moon "Port Angeles" segments were filmed, such as movie theater exterior scenes and Bella's dangerous motorcycle ride with a stranger. Eclipse footage of Riley chastising Victoria's Newborn Vampires as they rampaged in "Seattle" (with the Volturi looking on) was shot just down the street.

In another Vancouver suburb--Richmond--you'll find the Gulf of Georgia Cannery dock. This is where Eclipse scenes of Victoria administering her fateful bite, causing Riley to writhe in agony as vampire venom began to course through his veins, were filmed.

Tour the Twilight Saga Book Two is the only travel guidebook you'll need to plan and enjoy the most Twilicious Vancouver, BC holiday possible! No other single source--no Internet website or previously published guidebook--provides as much Twi-important information in one place.

Even if you're not yet ready to embark upon a Twilight Saga trip, each Tour the Twilight Saga travel guidebook is fun to read! Nowhere else will you find such interesting information about each and every Twilight-related site.
