The USA TODAY Bestselling faerie saga continues...

Hunters are the enemy. That was what we faeries were always told.

Breaking my engagement to the man I had loved my entire life was a dangerous move, one that got me expelled from the faerie isle. I'd known the risks, though. I'd known that if Cruz, Cat or my brother didn't find a way to get me home, the fire in my veins would dwindle until it was gone, and with it my life.

With mere weeks left to live, I set out on a last adventure: discover if more Daneelies had survived the massacre, the same way Catori's ancestor had. Although I'd decided to go alone, Kajika insisted on accompanying me.

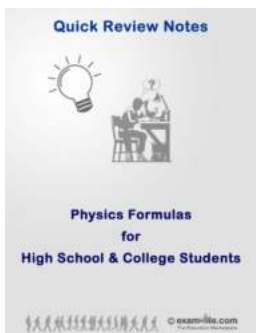

I wanted to believe he was coming because he liked me. But I was still the enemy...the mute girl whom he could hear speak when no one else could...the one person who could track him when he didn't want to be found.
