One of their own has become a plager. Can a family pull together and survive unspeakable loss?

When someone dear is bitten by a plager, Eugene is desperate to keep his loved one alive—even if that means using that person for research in Sanctuary.

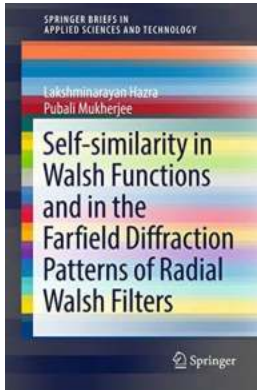

Zed has always been a little off. When faced with the sight of a loved one living as plager in a research lab, old flashbacks begin to surface.

He struggles to stay focused as the line between past and present blurs. He tries to keep it together for the ones he loves ...

... even when the plager starts to talk to him ... and begs to be let out of her cage.

Can Zed maintain his grip on reality? Or will he succumb to madness and make a decision that puts all of Sanctuary at risk?

Dead Crazy is the fourth book of the high-octane Afterworld Apocalypse series. If you liked Michonne's pet zombies from The Walking Dead and the gritty choices faced by characters from 28 Days Later, you won't want to miss this next installment. Enter the Afterworld and read Dead Crazy today!
